TO THE EDITOR OF THE "DAILY PRESS," DEAR SIR,—Having obtained the permission of the Chairman of the Society, of Mr. De Obstripesar, and Mr. T. Arnold, I enclose herewith copies of reports of steamers Fatshan and Haiphong and shall esteem it a favour if you shareholders. I think they are a complete answer to the paragraph in "Investor's" letter of the 7th, reading "How is it that this coal can be burnt in certain steam launches and yet fails so signally when tried by steamers, &c." That the coal gave every satisfaction in the way of burning and keeping steam is apparent. The matter of firebars do. is of course not favourable, but the Ratchan's bars being constructed for Milke dust, very light and very close together, it is searcely a fair test. With thicker bars and a greater distunes between them, the coal not only does no injury to the iron, but burns much better. I am informed also on very good authority that if certain iron is used for fire bars, there is no chance of any burning. So that I think this difficulty may be eventually overcome. Apologis-ing for occupying, so much of your valuable space, I am, yours faithfully,

NOW ON SALE. IMPERIAL QUARTO. DICTIONARY. DICTIONARY. WITH THE PUSTI AND MANDARIN PRONUNCIATION. an Anglo-Chinese Dictionary, published at the Daily Press Office, Hongkong. For comprehensiveness and practical servithis Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have of late years been compalled to coin to express the numerous ob jects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in science generally, which the rapid advance 1276 of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are here given in entenso. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations are given the secents being carefully marked on the best principle hitherto attained. The typography displays the success of an attempt to make the Chinese and English type correspond in the size of body, thereby effecting a vast economy of space, achieving a clearness not previously attained, and dispensing with those vast margins and vacant spaces which have heretofore characterised Chinese publications.

To illustrate the vast scope of the wark the following facts are submitted for consideration: Chalmers' Vocabulary contains about 16,000 Chinese characters, and Medhurst's English. and Chinese Dictionary about 100,000, whilst this work contains more than 50,000 English TOE COMPANY'S PREMISES in ICE-HOUSE ters. Again, despite all the grammars and etudent of this difficult language absolutely requires examples to display the various applications and equivalents of different words which have one general meaning. Of these examples [1094 this work contains more than five times as DATES many as any other Distionary hitherto pub-

> the work is so complete, that a reference to its pages enables a person who understands English to communicate effectively with natives who understand nothing but Chinese. In this respect the work will be found indispensable to al Europeans residing in China, and to the natives themselves it explains subjects fully with which very few indeed of them are perfectly acquainted. To parties resident in England and interested in China it cannot but be invaluable occasion-
